

I Parker Dixson would like to travel around the world with my family for 1 year.

In order to do this, I will have to do the following:

- Learn how to type or type better
- Create my own blog and learn how to blog
- Help plan the places we will go and the things we will do together

I understand that while on the trip I will be required to:

- Have a positive attitude, even in negative situations
- Be open to new adventures and foods
- Complete schooling 4 days a week on average
- Participate in various service projects we do as a family
- Attend church and have regular family prayer/scripture study
- Maintain my own blog on a regular basis
- Learn the basics of the language while in a new country
- Shower and brush my teeth daily
- Get along with my family members

If I do this I will:

- Be able to learn about different cultures and people throughout the world
- Be able to have unbelievable adventures
- Be able to speak conversationally in Spanish
- Miss a year of traditional schooling and activities
- Grow closer as a family and strengthen family bonds
- Gain a greater appreciation for the blessings I enjoy in my life
- Have a greater reverence for all of Heavenly Father's creations and strengthen my relationship with Him
- Experience, learn, grow, become
